

Student Employees Non-work-study

Student employees (non-work-study) receive a discount (does not include textbooks) at the bookstore in the basement of the Student Center and the bookstore on the Lawrence campus. To take advantage of the discount the student employee must present proof of employment. To obtain the proof of employment form please contact the Human Resources office located in the General Services building, room 219.

Tuition reimbursement is only available for courses taken at NECC:

Credit course: Limited to only one course per semester;
100% tuition and fees

Student employee must be working at NECC in a non-work-study position during the semester the course is taken)